DISCLAIMER

This document has been prepared solely for the purpose of providing U.K. and Dutch investors with certain information under Article 23 of the European Alternative Investment Fund Managers Directive (European Directive 2011/61/EU) as implemented in their respective jurisdictions. Accordingly, you should not use this document for any other purpose.

Netherlands

The units of Nippon Accomodations Fund Inc. ("NAF" or the "AIF") are being marketed in the Netherlands under Section 1:13b of the Dutch Financial Supervision Act (Wet op het financieel toezicht, or the "Wft"). In accordance with this provision, Mitsui Fudosan Accommodations Fund Management Co., Ltd. (the "AIFM") has notified the Dutch Authority for the Financial Markets of its intention to offer these units in the Netherlands. The units of NAF will not, directly or indirectly, be offered, sold, transferred or delivered in the Netherlands, except to or by individuals or entities that are qualified investors (gekwalificeerde beleggers) within the meaning of Article 1:1 of the Wft, and as a consequence neither the AIFM nor NAF is subject to the license requirement pursuant to the Wft. The AIFM is therefore solely subject to limited ongoing regulatory requirements as referred to in Article 42 of the AIFMD.

United Kingdom

Units of NAF are being marketed in the United Kingdom pursuant to Article 59 of the United Kingdom Alternative Investment Fund Managers Regulations 2013. In accordance with this provision, the AIFM has notified the Financial Conduct Authority (the "FCA") of its intention to offer these units in the United Kingdom.

For the purposes of the United Kingdom Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ("FSMA") NAF is an unregulated collective investment scheme which has not been authorized by the FCA.

Accordingly, any communication of an invitation or inducement to invest in NAF may be made to persons in the United Kingdom only if the communication falls within one or more of the categories of exempt financial promotions under the Financial Services and Markets Act (Financial Promotion) Order 2005 (the "Order"), such as financial promotions communicated to:

- (1) persons who are investment professionals, as defined in article 19 of the Order;
- (2) persons who are certified high net worth individuals, as defined in article 48 of the Order;

- (3) persons who are high net worth companies, unincorporated associations, or other entities listed in article 49 of the Order; or
- (4) persons who are certified sophisticated investors, as defined in article 50 of the Order, or if the communication is made to persons to whom such an invitation or inducement may otherwise lawfully be communicated. The distribution of this document to any person in the United Kingdom in circumstances not falling within one of the above categories is not permitted and may contravene FSMA. No person falling outside those categories should treat this document as constituting a promotion to him, or act on it for any purposes whatever.

In relation to each Member State of the European Economic Area which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a Relevant Member State), with effect from and including the date on which the Prospectus Directive is implemented in that Relevant Member State (the Relevant Implementation Date) no offer of units of NAF may be made to the public in that Relevant Member State except in circumstances falling within Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive, provided that no such offer of units shall require the publication of a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive, or a supplement to a prospectus pursuant to Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression "an offer of units to the public" in relation to any units in any Relevant Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the units to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the units, as the same may be varied in that Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Member State, the expression "Prospectus Directive" means Directive 2003/71/EC (and amendments thereto, including the 2010 PD Amending Directive, to the extent implemented in the Relevant Member State), and includes any relevant implementing measure in the Relevant Member State and the expression "2010 PD Amending Directive" means Directive 2010/73/EU.

Article 23 (1)(a)
Objectives of	Nippon Accommodations Fund Inc. ("NAF" or the "AIF") invests in "Accommodation Assets", the AIF	which includes rental apartments, dormitories/student apartments, serviced apartments, senior residences and corporate housing and specifically does not include hotel properties; particularly NAF invests in newly developed residential properties created in response to ongoing social and lifestyle changes.
	The basic policy of NAF is to maximize the value of "Accommodation Assets" by providing accommodations, i.e., services that satisfy diverse tenant needs. NAF takes a medium-to-long-term perspective in managing assets to secure stable earnings and steadily increase assets under management.
Investment	NAF emphasizes Greater Tokyo and other major cities in investing in Accommodation Assets. By associated risks	The principal risks with respect to investment in NAF are as follows:

	<ul> <li>any adverse conditions in the Japanese economy could adversely affect NAF;</li> </ul>
	NAF may not be able to acquire properties to execute the growth and investment strategy in a manner that is accretive to earnings; <ul> <li>illiquidity in the real estate market may limit the ability to grow or adjust the portfolio;</li> </ul>
	the past experience of our asset manager, Mitsui Fudosan Accommodations Fund Management Co., Ltd., (the "AIFM") in the Japanese real estate market is not an indicator

	NAF's reliance on Mitsui Fudosan Group(NAF's sponsor company), Mitsui Fudosan Accommodations Fund Management Co., Ltd. and other third service providers could have a material adverse effect on business;
	there are potential conflicts of interest between NAF and Mitsui Fudosan Group as well as the AIFM; NAF's revenues largely comprise leasing revenues from the portfolio properties, which may be negatively affected by vacancies, decreases in rent, and late or missed payments by tenants;

- NAF faces significant competition in seeking tenants and it may be difficult to find replacement tenants;
- increases in prevailing market interest rates may increase interest expense and may result in a decline in the market price of NAF's units;
- NAF may suffer large losses if any of the properties incurs damage from a natural or man-made disaster;
- most of the properties in the portfolio are concentrated in Tokyo 23 wards and are residential properties;
- any inability to obtain financing for future acquisitions could adversely affect the growth of the portfolio;
- NAF's failure to satisfy a complex series of requirements pursuant to Japanese tax regulations would disqualify NAF from certain taxation benefits and significantly reduce the cash distributions to the unitholders; and
- ownership rights in some of NAF's properties may be declared invalid or limited.

In addition, we are subject to the following risks:

- risks related to increasing operating costs;
- risks related to NAF's dependence on the efforts of the AIFM's key personnel;
- risks related to the restrictive covenants under debt financing arrangement;
- risks related to entering into forward commitment contracts;
- risks related to third party leasehold interests in the land underlying NAF properties;
- risks related to holding the property in the form of stratified ownership (kubun shoyū)
   interests or co-ownership interests (kyōyū-mochibun);
- risks related to holding the property through trust beneficiary interests;
- risks related to properties not in operation (including properties under development);
- risks related to the defective title, design, construction or other defects or problems in the properties;
- risks related to impairment losses relating to the properties;
- risks related to tenant leasehold deposits and/or security deposits;
- risks related to tenant's default as a result of financial difficulty or insolvency;
- risks related to the insolvency of master lessors;
- risks related to the insolvency of a property seller following our purchase of a property;
- risks related to relying on expert appraisals and engineering, environmental and seismic reports as well as industry and market data;
- risks related to the presence of hazardous or toxic substances in the properties, or the failure to properly remediate such substances;
- risks related to strict environmental liabilities for the properties;
- risks related to the amendment of applicable administrative laws and local ordinances;
- risks related to holding Japanese anonymous association (tokumei kumiai) interests;
- risks related to investments in trust beneficiary interests;

risks related to the tight supervision by regulatory authorities and compliance with applicable rules and regulations; risks related to tax authority disagreement with the AIFM's interpretations of the Japanese tax laws and regulations; risks related to being unable to benefit from reductions in certain real estate taxes enjoyed by qualified J-REITs; and risks related to changes in Japanese tax laws. Any applicable NAF is subject to investment restrictions under Japanese laws and regulations (e.g., the Act on investment Investment Trusts and Investment Corporations (the "ITA"), the Financial Instruments and restrictions Exchange Act (the "FIEA")) as well as its articles of incorporation. NAF must invest primarily in specified assets as defined in the ITA. Specified assets include, but are not limited to, securities, real estate, leaseholds of real estate, surface rights (chijō-ken) (i.e., right to use land for the purpose of having a structure on it) or trust beneficiary interests for securities or real estate, leaseholds of real estate or surface rights. A listed J-REIT must invest substantially all of its assets in real estate, real estate-related assets and liquid assets as provided by the listing requirements. Real estate in this context includes, but is not limited to, real estate, leaseholds of real estate, surface rights, and trust beneficiary interests for these assets, and real estate-related assets in this context include, but are not limited to, anonymous association (tokumei kumiai) interests for investment in real estate. Pursuant to the ITA, investment corporations may not independently develop land or construct buildings, but must outsource such activities. Furthermore, if NAF were to violate such restrictive covenants, such as with regard to loan-to-value ratios, lenders may be entitled to require NAF to collateralize portfolio properties or demand that the entire outstanding balance be paid. In the event of an increase in interest rates, to the extent that NAF has any debt with unhedged floating rates of interest or NAF incurs new debt, interest payments may increase, which in turn could reduce the amount of cash available for distributions to unitholders. Description of the AIF's valuation procedure and pricing methodology, including the methods used in valuing hard-to-value assets NAF makes investment decisions based on its investment strategies and in accordance with its articles of incorporation and based on the results of due diligence, including the valuation of properties and consideration of the property appraisal value.

NAF shall evaluate assets in accordance with its Article of Incorporation. The methods and standards that NAF uses for the evaluation of assets are based on the Regulations Concerning the Calculations of Investment Corporations, as well as the Regulations Concerning Real Estate Investment Trusts and Real Estate Investment Corporations and other regulations stipulated by ITA, in addition to Japanese GAAP. J-REITs may only use the valuation methods prescribed in the rules of the Investment Trusts Association, Japan, which emphasize market price valuation.

Regarding hard to value assets, such assets comprise tenant security deposits including trust accounts. Security deposits from tenants are not subject to fair value disclosure because they are not marketable, and actual deposit period is not estimable as leases may be cancelled, renewed or re-signed even if a lease term is set in the lease contract. This makes a reasonable estimate of future cash flows difficult. Valuation of such hard to value assets is included in the notes to our

Article 23(4)(c)

The current risk profile of the AIF and the risk management systems employed by the AIFM to manage those risks The appropriateness and effectiveness of the risk management structure are regularly evaluated and enhanced by the AIFM.

Deposits are exposed to risks of failure of the financial institution holding the deposit and other credit risks, but such risks are controlled by striving to diversify the financial institutions holding the deposits.

Funds from loans and bonds are primarily used for acquiring assets and to repay interest-bearing debt. NAF manages associated liquidity and interest rate fluctuation risk in ways such as by diversifying its credit sources and maturities, dispersing repayment dates, establishing committed credit lines, keeping sufficient liquidity in hand, and mainly using fixed-rate loans. Our credit line is in the amount of 10 billion yen; no amount has been drawn down as of August 31, 2014.

Debt with a floating interest rate is exposed to interest rate fluctuation risks, but the impact that interest rate rises have on the operations is limited by keeping the appraisal LTV at low levels, maintaining the proportion of debt that is long-term fixed-rate debt at high levels, and setting a procurement limit depending on the economic and financial environment, terms of lease agreements with tenants, asset holding period and other factors.

Furthermore, derivative transactions (interest rate swap transactions) are available as hedging instruments to mitigate the risks of rises in floating interest rates. NAF may enter into derivative transactions solely for the purpose of hedging interest rate risk. Currently, NAF is not engaged in any derivative transactions. NAF strives for efficiency in its funding plans and has an operating policy of minimizing surplus funds.

Tenant security deposits are exposed to liquidity risk arising from vacating of properties by tenants due to the termination of contract.

NAF manages this risk by monitoring forecasted cash flows on a monthly basis to ensure it has sufficient funds.
